

It seems quite clear to me that the recent ruling in Sinclair's favor by the FCC is only because the head of the FCC is the Secretary of State's son. How much further do you have to go to prove that you all are in George Bush's back pocket?

Sinclair is abusing it's power and what's more is clearly illegally circumventing the Federal Election Commission guidelines by donating air time in lieu of the already capped funds donated to the Bush campaign.

This is despicable behavior especially when aided and abetted by the FCC.

At the very least, Michael Powell should resign.

Sincerely,

Deborah M. Nesbit
